Tuition Policies

- Tuition is paid in 8 installments (Aug., Sept., Oct., Nov., Jan., Feb., March., April). Tuition is determined by the number of weeks in each semester, some months will have fewer classes and some months will have more. There are 16 weeks in each semester- a total of 32 weeks per season.
- Your first tuition payment is due August 5. Tuition is due at time of registration if registering after August 5.
- Tuition is not prorated for absences.
- Tuition is prorated for students that enroll after classes have begun.
- Tuition can be paid by card, check, or cash.
- Tuition is due on the 5th of each month Aug-April (no Dec. tuition due).
- Checks can be made out to Stage One Dance Studio.
- After 5 days of late payment, a $10 late fee will be charged on past due accounts.
- Payments 30 days past due will result in class withdrawal.

Recital/Performance Fees

All classes at Stage One participate in Spring Recital in April at the Cookeville Performing Arts Center.

- Costume fees are due by October 5, 2024.
- Costume fees for ages 2-8 are $85 per class.
- Costume fees for ages 9-up are $105 per class.
- Focus Chassé and Sauté have 2 costumes (ballet and lyrical)- $105 each. Focus Jeté, Echappé, and Glissé have 3 costumes (ballet, lyrical, and pointe)- $105 each.
- All students are charged a one time $50 performance fee (due February 5) which includes a digital recording of the show and a recital t-shirt.

Make-Up Class Policies

- During the months of August through December, a make-up class may be scheduled for a missed class.
- Email us at lovestageonedance@gmail.com to schedule a make-up class.
- January-April, make-up classes are not offered due to recital preparation.

Withdrawal Policy

Enrollment at Stage One Dance Studio is for the entire season- August- April.

- To withdraw from your classes, fill out the Drop Form at the front desk. This must be completed before your next billing cycle in order to not be charged. The billing cycle starts on the 25th of each month.
